He was married to his wife, Carolyn, on June 25, 1949 and they were loving partners for over 67 years.

He is preceded in death his parents, his brother Arthur Hall, his sister Doris Krueger and grandson-in-law Jeff Rozmeski.

He is survived by:

his wife Carolyn Fay (nee Harbit) Hall,

Charles loved gardening, bird watching (especially purple martins), and being a handyman at church and family/friends' homes. He enjoyed playing and coaching baseball, and watching the St. Louis Cardinals. Understanding the fundamentals and strategy behind playing baseball was important for him to share with others.

He led by example and his children and grandchildren learned by his example. They noticed that his wife, Carolyn, never opened a door and he always carried their wedding photo in his wallet. Although he retired from Union Electric (Ameren) with 45 years of service as a construction auditor, he would tell others that his job was to make his wife, Carolyn, happy. He is fondly remembered and will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.

Memorial services will be held on Tuesday, November 22, 2016 at 2:30 pm at New Beginnings Lutheran Church (791 New Beginnings Dr, Pacific, MO 63069 – NBLC.net). He will be laid to rest at Jefferson Barracks National Cemetery, as he proudly served in the Coast Guard during World War II.
