“ I knew Windel when he lived in Montana with his father and his hearing dog named Kern. Windel and Kern and his father would come into the Lolo Tavern I had managed at that time and every one loved them! Windel helped me train my old dog some new tricks and we had fun doing this! Windel was such a nice person and after he moved away we still kept in touch. He would email me funny things and I loved him for that!
I am very sad to know I will never hear from him again.
I pray he is in a better place and my heart and prayers go out to his family and friends.
May he rest in peace..
